AthFest Merchandise Sales at the Flagpole Music Awards

Sell AthFest merchandise during the awards show. We have begun using Square readers in our merchandise areas, so community members willing to use their iPhone or Android phones with these readers are encouraged to consider volunteering with our merchandise team.

AthFest 2016 Merchandise Tent

Your job is pretty simple: sell AthFest festival swag such as t-shirts, CDs, pins, wristbands, etc. to festival attendees. We have begun using Square readers in our merchandise areas, so community members willing to use their iPhone or Android phones with these readers are encouraged to consider volunteering with our merchandise team.

AthFest 2016 Volunteer Check-In

Check in all festival volunteers, have waivers signed, hand out hospitality t-shirts and parking vouchers and direct volunteers to their stations.

AthFest 2016 Hospitality

Set-up and restock all volunteer hospitality items as needed including drinks, snacks, tables, chairs, and fans. Monitor the volunteer hospitality tent entry and ensure only official volunteers and staff are entering the tent. Keep the volunteer area clean and assist with any set-up and break-down needs in the hospitality tent as needed.

AthFest 2016 Festival Set-Up/Break-Down

Festival set-up volunteers help us with the momentous task of—you guessed it—setting up and breaking-down. Typical jobs include the set-up and break-down of festival tents, barricades, tables, chairs, fans, and other supplies. We ask that any set-up and break-down volunteer be prepared to do some heavy lifting. We strongly advise wearing close-toed, sturdy shoes.

AthFest 2016 Festival Floaters/Runners

Help deliver supplies to various areas as needed. Act as floater/runner between different areas to help the festival run smoothly. We strongly advise wearing close-toed, sturdy shoes.

AthFest Beer Merchandise and ID Check

Responsible adults (must be 25 years of age or older) will assist in selling any merchandise related to beer sales, i.e. beer tokens and commemorative mugs. These volunteers also will assist in carding festival guests and providing wristbands to those who are of legal drinking age.
